A colorful illustration of a scene. In the foreground, a blue donkey and an orange donkey are facing each other on a green field. The blue donkey is on the left, and the orange donkey is on the right. There are some small white dots on the ground between them. In the background, there are two green trees with brown trunks and red dots representing apples. A large yellow sun is in the center of the sky, with several white clouds around it. The sky is a light blue color.
